Food	Datshi is famous food - veggies in cheese sauce, eaten with rice The little meat that is consumed is imported from India; no slaughterhouses exist in Bhutan
History &amp; Culture	King of Bhutan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>☑ Jigme Khesar Namgyel Wangchuk - The 5th Dragon King</li> <li>☑ The Druk Gyalpo (Dragon King) is the head of state of the Kingdom of Bhutan. In the Dzongkha language, Bhutan is known as Drukpa which translates as "The Land of the Thunder Dragon". The Bhutanese people call themselves the Drukpa, meaning "Dragon people".</li> </ul> The Government of Bhutan Bhutan has been a constitutional monarchy since 18 July 2008. The King of Bhutan is the head of state. The executive power is exercised by the Lhengye Zhungtshog, or council of ministers, headed by the Prime Minister. Matriarchal Society Traditional society in Bhutan, which lies in the Eastern Himalayas between China and India, is matriarchal, and Bhutanese women do not have to contend with any institutionalized forms of discrimination. Women account for nearly half 50% of land owners, a figure that increases to 60% in rural regions. Gross National Happiness (GNH) Bhutan measures its success in GNH rather than in GDP.
